

CURATOR BIOGRAPHY

Karen Indeck:

Karen Indeck has been the curator and director of Gallery 400 and the Visiting Artists-in-Residence Program at the University of Illinois at Chicago since 1986. Indeck received a BFA from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Linda King:

Linda King is a longtime painter and educator. Beginning her career as an assistant director of the Art Resource Center, University of Iowa (1978–80), King has gone on to serve as an assistant professor at Sangamon State University in Springfield, IL (1980–83) and as an instructor at Columbia College, Chicago (1984–87). She is currently the assistant professor of studio art at the University of Illinois at Chicago. King's work has been included in group and solo exhibitions at institutions such as the Cedar Rapids Art Museum (1980), the Indianapolis Museum of Art (1985), and the Brooklyn Museum (1985). King received an MA from California State University (1976) and an MFA from the University of Iowa (1979).