TIME(S): Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, noon-4 p.m.

LOCATION: Gallery 400, 400 S. Peoria St. (southwest corner of Peoria and Van Buren streets, two blocks west of Halsted)

COST: Free

DESCRIPTION: Selected entries from "The Republic Reconsidered," an art competition sponsored by UIC's School of Art and Design, will be shown. The competition, which began in July 1993, challenged artists to "explore and redefine the established genre of the monument and the place of public art in the community" by focusing on "The Statue of the Republic," located in Chicago's Jackson Park. Works by Jon Pounds, Tom Denlinger, Russ Redsville, Michael Piazza, Tom VanEynde, Dan Mills, Robert Hewitt, Leslie Brack, Nicholas Bruno, Patrick Collier, Christine Boos, Susan Sensemann, Larry Miller, Nina Levy, Barbara Blades, Martha Schlitt, James Warden, Richard Binder, Rita Halvorsen, Helen Tsatsos, Ellen Grimes, Kurt Mitchell, Steve Olsen, Markus Dohner and Yvette Brackman will be displayed. The project was coordinated through the City of Chicago's Department of Cultural Affairs, "Chicago '93"; the Chicago Park District; and the B.F. Ferguson Fund of the Art Institute of Chicago.
